MIAMI WORLD CENTER

Developed by Naftali Group

FOREWORD

Welcome to JEM. Over three decades, my team and I have developed the most sought-after residences in New York City and throughout the world. As our inaugural residential property in Miami, JEM continues that proud tradition.

We have collaborated with the world's top talents in architecture and design to create a jewel of a building—one whose quality, design, and artistry are unlike anything else in South Florida. A product of our passion and dedication, JEM is a true collector's edition. Its peerless craftsmanship and construction are guaranteed to stand the test of time.

At Naftali Group, our work is a tribute to the greatest global cities. A true international capital, Miami is abundant with culture, flavor, beaches, creativity, shopping, and attractions. JEM is at the heart of that signature magic. Located at the focal point of Worldcenter, Miami's most iconic new neighborhood, it is an urban oasis just one block from Biscayne Bay.

We invite you to discover JEM.
